

“Ms [REDACTED] reported her income as net 2000 Euro monthly. While her LinkedIn account has recently set as being unemployed. Also, according to her recent Facebook posts, she is looking for a new place because of her separation from her partner. Therefore, this applicant, financially and socially is not in a stable situation to bear the cost of a home in Berlin, especially in Berlin Mitte. But regarding her “progressive” lifestyle, her residing in Potsdam helps the acceleration of the development in that area. This development not only allows Berlin for new land resources but also maintain Ms [REDACTED]’s future credit. Sooner or later, this gentrifier!! will realise the value of being allocated in this area and will be appreciated the HAVOC for such a housing privilege!”
